
10 QUESTIONS

1. How are you currently being taught? By doing homeschooling or are some of you going to school?

-We are being taught using the internet and getting emails from our teachers. Most people are being homeschooled but some have to go to school.

2. Do you get marks during this difficult time? If yes, do you think that these marks are justified because some students might get help from their parents and therefore get better marks?

-We do get marks for somethings, I think it is mainly fair but some people will get help and therefore better marks which they wouldn't at school.

3. Have you got many homework and you get it sent?

-We aren't getting homework at the moment!

4. We had to download an app to communicate with our teachers. Do you have some kind of app or do you have a video conference with your teachers?

-We use emails but we also downloaded an app for work and video conferences.

5. Our last day of school was on March 17, 2020. And since when don't you have school?

-Friday 20th March

6. On 15 April, our German Chancellor Angela Merkel and three politicians decided that schools would gradually resume teaching on 4 May. When can you return to school?

-We don't completely know yet but most people think at the start of the next school year, so September.

7. When we start school on 4 May, however, not so many students are allowed to enter a room at once. How many students do you think you can be in a room at most?

-15-20?

8. Can all students, from every grade, go to school? At our school, only those who have to write their exams, are sent to the school.

-At the moment no-one is going to school until September.

9. And what about the at-risk patients? Are they allowed or must go to school? In Germany, this is the case that they can be exempted by the doctor.

-At-risk patients must stay in their house.

10. If you are all allowed to go back to school, will you only be taught the main subjects or all the subjects? Because in our school, probably only the main subjects are taught.

-Our government has not told us yet.

10 FRAGEN AN DIE “PARKSTONE GRAMMAR SCHOOL” AUS ENGLAND

Ich habe eine Schülerin, namens Pippa, die die “Parkstone Grammar School” besucht, 10 Fragen zu der aktuellen Coronazeit gefragt - natürlich auf die Schule bezogen. Seit dem 20. März 2020 haben alle Schüler keinen Unterricht mehr. Das ganze findet zur Zeit zu Hause statt. Auf ihrer Schule geht im Moment kein einziger Schüler zur Schule, es werden nur die Schulen geöffnet, wo die jüngeren Klassen sind oder die, die Prüfungen schreiben müssen - genauso wie bei uns in Deutschland. Das bedeutet, dass sie erstmal zu Hause bleiben muss. Und das bis September. Wie sie mit ihren Lehrern kommuniziert? Nun ja, sie verwendet E-mails, aber auch eine App für Arbeits- und Videokonferenzen. Trotz dieser schwierigen Zeit bekommen die Schüler auf der “Parkstone Grammar School” Noten, jedoch meinte sie, dass sie es nicht so toll findet, dass einige bessere Noten bekommen, nur weil sie auch Hilfe von zu Hause bekommen.

Ich hoffe, dass auch alle Schüler in England so schnell wie möglich in ihren Alltag zurückkehren, sowie wir es tun.
